Dear Father Coughlin:

I write to inform you that His Eminence the Cardinal has graciously granted your request to explore the possibility of working in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. You may write to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to inform them that you have the permission of REDACTED REDACTED to seek acceptance there with a view to eventual incardination.

When you have received word from Los Angeles relative to your request, I shall be grateful for this information.

With kindest regards, I am

Your Excellency:

In accord with your directions during my short visit with you last February I am writing to inform you that I have received permission from REDACTED REDACTED to "explore the possibility of working in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles" and to "write to the Archdiocese and inform them that I have the permission". I enclose a copy of the letter I received today from REDACTED

By way of some further introduction of myself, I was ordained on September 29, 1953 and was stationed at St. Patrick's, Stoneham, Massachusetts under REDACTED REDACTED who is still pastor there, until February 16, 1960, when I was transferred here to St. Mary's, Lynn, Massachusetts, under REDACTED REDACTED REDACTED former Superintendent of Schools in the Archdiocese and present Vicar General. I received my Master of Arts Degree in Education, (Remedial Reading Specialist) in May, 1964 from Cardinal Stritch College, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Among my reasons for wishing to go to the Los Angeles Archdiocese is a desire to join with the other members of my family, who live in the Orange County area, in their efforts to REDACTED REDACTED REDACTED

I can assure you, though, that such an effort would not be allowed to interfere with my priestly duties.

I'll be happy to furnish you with any other information you may desire and will be most grateful for whatever consideration I may be given in my request to go there to work in your Archdiocese.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Richard T. Coughlin

Reverend and dear Father Coughlin:

This is to acknowledge your letter of April 29th, with enclosures, addressed to His Excellency Bishop Timothy Manning.

Please be assured that we will be happy to give you hospitality here in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, subject, of course, to a letter from REDACTED recommending you for an assignment in the Archdiocese. Since you now have a Master's Degree in Education I am sure that we would be able to add you to our faculty at Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana with residence in one of the neighboring parishes. This is presently our largest high school, and is located in Orange County.

If you would be kind enough to advise us as to your decision, and date of availability, we will proceed to make plans accordingly.

With personal regards, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Your Excellency:

In response to your letter of May seventeenth,
REDACTED REDACTED REDACTED informed me yesterday that I would be allowed to leave my assignment here at St. Mary's, Lynn, on June fifteenth.

Unless I might be able to dispose of my car, I would have to drive across the country and, I feel, I should allow six or seven days for the trip. Thus it would seem that it would be about June twenty-second that I would be in the Los Angeles area.

I certainly hope that this will make my services available to you soon enough to alleviate your problem in Orange County.

I will do all that I can to be at your disposal as quickly as possible and will be most willing to receive whatever instructions or suggestions you may have in the matter.

Dear REDACTED :

Some time ago you agreed that a change should be made here and said that reasons would have to be given. If a change comes as a surprise to Father Coughlin, it is because my attitude has continued to be friendly and, for the most part, patient even when deeply disturbed over things that were not right.

Underlying our problem is, perhaps a lack of communication. I have not been able to impress him with the importance of cooperating with me in the work most needed in the parish. For example, he prefers to spend a lot of time with non-essentials in our school, including a boy's choral group and coaching the teams. On the other hand, he has to be asked repeatedly to visit C.C.D. classes or some of our thirty five released time groups. He will not take a day off but usually takes off in the afternoon for sports and other activities with our boys or affairs of a personal nature.

Father Coughlin brings from the East the attitude that he is available for people who arrange to see him but he prefers not to make calls. I keep him busy with our many marriage arrangements and instructions. When not busy, he is gone. On the credit side, I must say that he is always willing to see people when they ask him. He is good about taking weddings, funerals and a second or third Mass when needed. He is friendly and cheerful. Perhaps another pastor will be able to work with him better than I. It should also be noted that during the first six months he was here from Boston, he had very little supervision. He became set in his routine and was not able to adjust to my administration.

Our 2,000 families need an assistant who will do a day's work and be able to assume responsibility. (It will need two when this administrator gets further along in his sixties and starts to slow down.)

Appreciating your interest and concern over our problem and with all good wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely,

You may remember while attending our last clergy retreat I inquired as to what procedure I should follow in making application for incardination into the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

You recommended that I write you a letter asking to be incardinated so please except this as my request.

I have been serving in this archdiocese since June 19, 1965 having been stationed at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, Santa Ana, (briefly with Fr. REDACTED and Fr. REDACTED and later with Fr. REDACTED and then here at St. Anthony Claret Parish, Anaheim with Fr. REDACTED

These have been happy and, I hope, fruitful years and it is my wish to become a member of the clergy of the archdiocese.

By way of information, I studied at St. John Seminary, Brighton, Mass. and was ordained September 29, 1953 for the Archdiocese of Boston. I obtained a Masters Degree in Special Education (Remedial Reading) in 1964. If I have an avocation it is my interest in fostering vocations to the priesthood. God has been good. There are at present twelve boys at Queen of Angels Seminary whom I have been able to guide there. I would consider it the finest of privileges to help in any way in finding and assisting boys with vocations.

I will be grateful to you for giving this request your attention and for advising me as to any further steps I should take in this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Bishop Ward:

Your letter of October 9 arrived yesterday regarding Fr Coughlin. I won't attempt to give my "Verdict" - whatever that means - but I will give my impression of him.

I lived with him at Immaculate Heart of Mary Rectory for about 24 months and that was 5 years ago. At the time I arrived the pastor was not in residence and the whole burden of running the parish was on the shoulders of Fr Coughlin. He was occupied from morning until late at night, actively interested in the 16 class-room school, the large C.A.W. Legion of Mary and, while I was there, started the St. Vincent de Paul Society with meetings at 107.M. Being new to the parish and having been told that I was to be there for only a couple of months, I'm afraid I wasn't too much help in relieving him. I spoke to the REDACTED - about his being on the go all the time. His opinion was that he had just come from a large eastern parish with several priests where his own participation was quite limited and now, with this opportunity and need, he plunged wholeheartedly into the work at Immaculate Heart. I'm wondering if that it didn't result in a nervous breakdown.

At a time when we were not as yet supposed to say the Canon out loud he, perhaps taking a cue from REDACTED REDACTED pronounced the words in a strained loud voice and quite slowly, indicating to me - perhaps - scrupulousity. He would finish Mass with his face wet with perspiration.

He did not drink in so far as I know. But, if I remember correctly, did have REDACTED who was an alcoholic, which could happen in any family. He had a brother (or sister) whom he visited on his day off.

That's about all I can recall about him. I suggest you get Fr. REDACTED opinion. They were together much longer than I was. I have never mentioned these things to anyone else. He got along all right with the help, i.e., housekeeper, etc.

Sincerely yours in Christ
REDACTED

One thing more: at a time when birth control and the pill were very much in the news and everyone was wondering what stand the Pope would take, he surprised me at Lumbard one day by saying that if the Pope changed his teaching on the subject - permitting birth control - he would leave the Church. As I recall, he had reference to the 'pill'. My attitude is that, if the Pope were to say the pill is O.K., then it's O.K.

Your Excellency,

You asked me about Father Richard Coughlin's incardination into the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Father Coughlin has been with me in this parish for about three years.

Since in fairness to all concerned it is very hard to put everything that should be said into a letter I presumed to call you on the phone.

As an associate pastor he is singular in the fact that he believes in the Holy Ghost rather than the Holy Spirit. He takes a great deal of interest in sending young boys to the seminary. Working with boys takes a great deal of his time and attention. He is a good singer and a good preacher.

Since I have another assistant here to take care of the C.C.D. programme I am very pleased with the combination.

Father Coughlin will, I suspect, find it very hard to accept responsibility when the time comes. But to date he has been very happy working in our archdiocese.

All considered I definitely approve of his incardination.

Yours respectfully in Christ,

Your Excellency:

Rev. Richard T. Coughlin has written to REDACTED REDACTED requesting to be incardinated in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Father Coughlin is a priest of the Archdiocese of Boston who now serves in Los Angeles on a "lend lease" basis.

REDACTED is inclined to grant this request, but before doing so, he wishes to be assured of your full approval.

A second matter of concern to REDACTED REDACTED is the fact that although Father Coughlin is a member of the Clergy Fund Society of the Archdiocese of Boston and thus has been protected from the burden of medical and hospitalization expenses, to date he is $400.00 in arrears in payment of his yearly assessments. The Clergy Fund is facing staggering financial demands and will only be able to fulfill its obligations if each priest pays his personal assessment. REDACTED would request Father Coughlin to meet this financial obligation to the Archdiocese of Boston before acting on his request.

If your Excellency would kindly favor us with your advice concerning these two matters, I would be most grateful.

Reverend Chancellor:

We have recently been informed that Reverend Richard Coughlin will be transferred from St. Anthony Claret Parish in Anaheim.

Within the last four months we have lost a seasoned assistant, Father REDACTED Father Coughlin's transfer would leave our parish without any assistants who are fully familiar with our problems, with the exception of our pastor, Father REDACTED

We respectfully request that Father Coughlin's transfer be delayed. You are probably not familiar with Father's work with young groups in the parish. In addition to his normal duties, he works with altar boys, Legion of Mary, Candy Stripers at a convalescent home, St. Vincent de Paul Society and St. Anthony Barbershop Chorus consisting of 20 parish school boys.

We are parents and close associated friends of this chorus, who would like to see this transfer delayed, because of the tremendous work that Father and his chorus are doing for the Catholic Church.

We feel you should be made aware of the fact that his work is of an ecumenical nature, singing before all religious groups. He has singing engagements booked for several months including a planned summer trip to Rome and Vatican City. Cancelling or delaying his transfer would allow him to complete his plans.

Father's first love is his faith and his second love is this youth group which brings joy and happiness to their audiences, particularly the elderly in convalescent homes who, as you know, are so often forgotten.

With all due respect to your office, we are enclosing a list of signatures of those who would like you to reconsider the transfer of Father Coughlin.

Dear Father Coughlin:

Please accept my sincere appreciation for your kind letter of July 3.

I sincerely regret that we are unable at this time to honor your most worthy request. This year we have supplied the Archdiocesan school system with eight priests. We have had other men go into special work and find that we have now seriously endangered our priest personnel coverage of the parochial ministry.

Please be assured that I mean this only as a delay and not as a refusal of your request. In all honesty, I can't see how your request could be honored for at least a year. Please be assured of my concern for your request.

It was one of the highlights of my trip to see you and your boys' choir in, of all places, the audience hall in the Vatican. Just another indication of the universality of our Holy Faith.

PLACENTIA POLICE DEPARTMENT

CRIME: 288(a) PC Lewd Act on Child

DATE: approximately 1970 to 1972

VICTIM: REDACTED

SUSPECT: COUGHLIN, Richard Thomas
 212 S. Kraemer Blvd. #202
 Placentia 92870
 DOB 061324 CDL S0411848

On 111299 at approximately 2005 hours, I spoke with victim REDACTED on the phone. The conversation was tape-recorded; following is a synopsis.

REDACTED joined the chorus in 1969, when he was an 11-year old 5th-grader at St. Anthony Claret Catholic Church/School, Anaheim. REDACTED was a charter member of the chorus, which began as a barbershop choir. Initially, the choir was a class elective and as such, attracted boys whose musical abilities and true dedication were questionable. Coughlin decided to reconstitute the choir by personally auditioning and selecting boys who possessed musical talent and a real interest in participating. REDACTED, best friend, REDACTED was selected and asked REDACTED to also join.

Practices were held at the church after school, so Coughlin never took REDACTED to or from practice. The chorus performed locally at convalescent homes, women's clubs, Elks Clubs, etc. REDACTED went on two European tours in 1971 and 1972.

REDACTED estimated that he was in the choir approximately one year before Coughlin sexually molested him. REDACTED could not recall where this occurred or which specific act occurred first. REDACTED estimated that he was in the choir for five years and that the last molestation incident occurred when he was in 8th grade. REDACTED explained that in 8th grade, he joined the baseball team and his voice changed. REDACTED quit the choir just prior to their U.S. tour that year, but was asked to stay on as a tour assistant. REDACTED served in that capacity until June 1973. He estimated that he had the last sexual contact with Coughlin around April/May 1973.

REDACTED was reluctant to speak with me for a variety of personal reasons. Further, he had great difficulty discussing the specifics of Coughlin's abuse when I asked what form the sexual contact took. I asked REDACTED if there were any acts of sodomy or oral copulation and he said no. REDACTED was never asked to touch Coughlin's genitals. REDACTED recalled five to ten incidents where Coughlin touched REDACTED's genitals. Some of these incidents took place in the shower.

REDACTED described sexual molestations that took place in San Clemente and San Diego hotel rooms, as well as at Coughlin's REDACTED's house. REDACTED told me that Coughlin "had favorites who he obviously liked" and took small groups on trips. On occasion, REDACTED roomed with Coughlin. REDACTED thought that they stayed at the Town and Country Resort in San Diego three or four times. A couple of times, they went to (possibly) the San Clemente Inn. REDACTED recalled that the facility was near what was, at the time, President Richard Nixon's Western White House. Coughlin's REDACTED had a tri-level home, and the choir often went there as a group. REDACTED was there alone one time with Coughlin.

I asked REDACTED to describe the sexual touching in San Diego. REDACTED told me, "He had this thing for washing me." While Coughlin remained dressed, he accompanied REDACTED into the shower. REDACTED was not circumcised and Coughlin told him that he was going to teach him how to keep himself clean. Coughlin explained that REDACTED needed to be "extra careful" about his hygiene. I asked REDACTED if Coughlin just explained what to do or actually demonstrated on REDACTED. He said that Coughlin actually washed his penis. REDACTED recalled that Coughlin also did this when they were in Austria on tour.

REDACTED then recounted what happened at Coughlin's REDACTED's house. First, REDACTED had a vague memory of Coughlin helping him dress in an outside dressing area. He did not remember any specific sexual touching that may have occurred. REDACTED did recall a sexual encounter in Coughlin's REDACTED's room. The two were alone and Coughlin kissed him on the mouth. As Coughlin kissed him, Coughlin touched REDACTED's penis. He could not remember if it was over or under his clothing. This act did not last long for two reasons. REDACTED told Coughlin that "I had to go to the bathroom bad." Next, REDACTED had recently seen an episode of Gilligan's Island. In it, Ginger and Maryanne ate something that acted as an aphrodisiac. They wanted to kiss the Professor, who was much too straitlaced. The Professor explained that kissing would not be a good idea because it transferred germs. REDACTED said that he told Coughlin the same thing. REDACTED was sitting down as Coughlin kissed and fondled him.

Regarding the incidents in San Clemente, REDACTED remembered being washed in the shower, as in San Diego. REDACTED did not remember ever being taken to an Orange County motel, saying that there would not have been any reason to do that. By the same token, he could not recall any sexual molestation occurring on or in a motel bed.

I asked REDACTED if there was anyone else in the room when he was sexually molested. He replied, "I wanna say yes." REDACTED had memories of showering with other chorus members "a couple of times," but could not remember exactly who they were. I asked REDACTED if he was aware of any other victims. He said, "I don't think so." As for how Coughlin chose his victims, REDACTED explained, "It was stereotypical. He chose the shorter, youngest, younger-looking boys." REDACTED speculated that his best friend, REDACTED, may have been molested by Coughlin. REDACTED suspected this because Coughlin liked him and REDACTED committed suicide in his late REDACTEDs. REDACTED came from a large family (REDACTED children). REDACTED knew that some of Coughlin's victims did come from large families, citing the fact that he (REDACTED) had REDACTED brothers and sisters and REDACTED had either REDACTED siblings, as well.

REDACTED never confronted Coughlin about his actions and essentially put the incidents behind him. Eight or 9 years ago, victim REDACTED called REDACTED explaining that he was trying to pursue Coughlin for molesting him. REDACTED "went public," but REDACTED "wanted to go on with my life" and did not want to get involved. Until I spoke with REDACTED, he had never disclosed Coughlin's sexual abuse.

REDACTED did say that a friend, REDACTED, had a REDACTED, REDACTED REDACTED told REDACTED that Coughlin "tried to do something" to REDACTED and "he bailed on the chorus." REDACTED could provide no further details.

Re: REDACTED VS
BISHOP RICHARD THOMAS COUGHLIN

Dear Bishop Brown:

The undersigned Attorney-at-Law, represents REDACTED REDACTED with reference to sexual abuse, molestation and misconduct imposed upon REDACTED when he was 10 and 11 years old as an Altar Boy at St. Anthony Claret Catholic Church/School in Anaheim, California. At the time of these occurrences, Richard Thomas Coughlin, was a Bishop at the St. Anthony Claret Catholic Church/School.

REDACTED joined the choir in 1969, when he was an 11 year old 5th grader at St. Anthony Claret Catholic Church/School. He estimates that he was in the choir approximately one year before Bishop Richard Thomas Coughlin sexually molested him. My client is now age 42.

REDACTED estimated he was in the choir for five years and that the last molestation incident occurred when he was in the 8th grade. Practices were held in the church after school. The choir performed locally at convalescent homes, womens' clubs, Elks' clubs, etc.

REDACTED thinks he was in the choir approximately one year before Coughlin sexually molested him. The last molestation occurred when he was in the 8th grade.

Attached hereto, is a statement taken by Placentia Police Department with reference to "Lewd Act on Child". The statement was taken on November 17, 1999. My client confirms the testimony taken by the Police Department as being true and correct, but would add that on occasion, the Bishop would not only touch his penis, but would fondle his penis.

The actions imposed upon my client by the Roman Catholic Church through the actions of Bishop Coughlin has seriously damaged my client and will remain so the rest of his life. On behalf of my client, I am asking the church to consider negotiating for a payment of damages of a reasonable amount to compensate REDACTED for the reprehensible conduct of Bishop Coughlin toward my client as outlined in this statement taken by the Placentia Police Department.

My client, REDACTED falls within the Code of Civil Procedure, Section 340.1, which allows him to proceed with a complaint against the church, in that he has most recently discovered the psychological injuries that occurred from the sexual abuse of Bishop Coughlin during the period of time he owed Mr. REDACTED the duty of care.

I trust REDACTED claim against the church can be settled without the necessity of litigation. It is necessary that I have a response to this letter within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of this letter.

Respectfully submitted
