RE: Abuse Complaint

Father REDACTED referred REDACTED (Holy Family, Artesia).

She recently was flooded with memories of abuse by a priest. She was, circa REDACTED, in sixth grade. "What's most in my memory is 'fondling', he'd come over to our house, have dinner, come in my room after I went to bed, and he.....I don't know what my Mom thought. I'm angry she didn't protect me. He came in my room, many times; fondled me under my clothes."

Did he touch you genitally? "Yes."

The abuse went on over a period of several years.

"He stayed friendly with my family. About five years ago, he telephoned my parents on a holiday when I happened to be there. My mother urged me to say 'Hello'. I couldn't and wouldn't."

REDACTED does not want her family to know anything about the abuse. No one should contact any member of her family about this matter.

Dear Tim:

An Indult of Secularization was granted to Fr. Titian Miani on September 7, 1974 and executed by REDACTED for the Diocese of Stockton on October 23, 1974.

I have found no other clarifications in our file.

In the past year I have happened to meet Fr. Miani in Stockton, because he has most recently worked at St. Luke's Parish there where we now have two Salesians carrying out a Vietnamese ministry.

As far as I know, he retired on January 1 of this year.

I'll be coming back down to Los Angeles during this week to see how things are.

Have a good week!

In Christ,

Dear Father: REDACTED

I hope you are getting some rest since last we meet as you deserve vacation from the burdens you carried last year.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you about the matter of Father Titian Miani about whom I spoke to you briefly when last we talked.

REDACTED was referred to me by a priest of the Archdiocese as you will note from the attached memo. She is a relative of a priest of the Archdiocese who knows nothing about the case. She has been long involved in Church ministry, and her testimony sounded to Monsignor Richey and myself quite credible. Inasmuch as the complaints of abuse took place during the year that Fr. Miani was a Salesian, I am referring this matter to you.

I will also inform the REDACTED REDACTED inasmuch as any further action with regard to Fr. Miani would likely need the coordination with him, as Fr. Miani is an incardinated priest of the Diocese of Stockton.

At this point, REDACTED is quite firm in stating that she will seek no civil action, and that her intent to bring this matter before us is twofold: that she herself be given counselling, and that Fr. Miani be restricted in such a way that he would pose no further danger to children.

I am, of course, making no judgment as to Fr. Miani's conduct. If the procedures of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles were to be followed, these allegations would certainly warrant investigation and, most probably, a psychological evaluation of Fr. Miani to determine what decision REDACTED would make in this regard.

I will be away from the office during the next two weeks, returning from vacation on August 16. I would welcome a call from you to discuss this matter at that time.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Timothy J. Dyer

Dear REDACTED

I am writing as a follow-up to my letter of July 30 regarding Father Titian Miani.

At this time, I would like to communicate to REDACTED any progress that has been made in regard to her requests for psychological evaluation of and restrictions on Father Miani. Again, I am making no judgment as to Father Miani's conduct. I am, however, wondering if an investigation has been made, so that answer can be given REDACTED

Thank you for your help in this regard. I will wait to hear from you.

Dear REDACTED

I am writing to update you on the actions I have taken in the last two months with regard to Father Titian Miani, S.D.B.

On July 30 I wrote to REDACTED to inform him of your allegations and to suggest an investigation, including a psychological evaluation of Father Miani.

I informed him that your intent in bringing this matter before us is two-fold: That you be afforded counseling and that Father Miani be restricted from ministry that would pose further danger to children.

As I have not heard from REDACTED I wrote him again today asking that he contact me with regard to any steps he has taken in this matter. I have spoken to him myself by phone, in addition to these letters, and you can be sure that he is a man of compassion and will treat this case with all sincerity.

Dear Tim:

This letter regards Fr. Titian Miani.

I did visit Fr. Miani in Stockton with the resulting information:

About four weeks ago he had a very risky heart operation. When I spoke to him, he was about to enter the hospital again for assessment. He's had heart problems since 1970. I was very uncertain whether even to raise the matter in his condition, but ended doing so since he was already apprehensive about my visit. It will be six months before results of his operation are conclusively known. He is retired from official priestly responsibilities.

He denied any part of the accusation. He stated he did not know a REDACTED ; asked whether that was her maiden name or not, and whether he might meet her. I told him not to involve himself - that I would handle the matter.

He stated that he had celebrated Mass on assignment at Holy Family, but that he left the So. California area in 1967, having been assigned to the S.F. Bay Area. Our records show this. In 1970 he graduated from U.S.F., went to Italy and suffered a heart attack. I believe also that he was already working in Linden in the Stockton Diocese in 1970. Actually, our records are a little vague from 1968 to 1970, but he was assigned to the Bay Area. This does not, of course, mean he could not have traveled to So. California.

He questioned whether he was being confused with someone else. He mentioned more than once that he had done a lot of things in his life but nothing of the sort of the complaint. He added that maybe he was being punished in this manner for other things. I rejoined, of course, that we would defend the innocent absolutely.

I did speak to REDACTED . My feeling was that he was a little put out about my having approached Fr. Miani, particularly because of his condition, but that he was grateful for the update, a type of report he had expected.

Dear REDACTED

I have your letter of September 25 regarding Father Titian Miani, SDB, and am writing to let you know the next steps I believe should be taken in this matter. You may want to call me before taking them, and, indeed, I suggest you do so. I will be away from the office from November 1 to November 4, but back on November 5.

I believe it is time for you and REDACTED to speak directly to each other, so that you can tell her about your conversation with Father Miani and let her know of his various assignments between Southern California and the Bay Area. It may be she has identified the wrong priest, but this can best be determined by your comparing the details of what she has to say with your own records. She identified Father Miani from a high school yearbook picture, but could not recall the spelling of his name until she found that picture. After that, she told me she was certain of his identity.

PLEASE NOTE THAT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES DOES REDACTED WISH TO BE CONTACTED AT HER HOME EITHER BY PHONE OR BY MAIL.

TO CONTACT HER PLEASE CALL ON HER PAGER REDACTED OR AT HER OFFICE REDACTED
REDACTED

If, after you speak to REDACTED it appears that Father Miani is in fact the priest about whom she is making allegations, I would suggest that the Order offer her counseling without any admission of wrongdoing. This has become a practice in other dioceses and we have been assured by our attorneys that no liability pertains if the Archdiocese (or in this instance the Religious Order) makes it a general policy to offer assistance to those who have made credible allegations, even when the priest in question credibly denies them.

Again, however, I encourage you to call me with any questions you may have about any of this prior to your contacting REDACTED

With warmest regards, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Tim:

Thank you for the copies of letters re: REDACTED^{"REDACTED"}. Your words were excellent! I am sorry that you have to go to such trouble.

These are a few words of update about the cases of Fr. Titian Miani and REDACTED.

Several months ago, after our last conversation, I contacted REDACTED REDACTED explaining that Fr. Titian Miani had not admitted any wrongdoing despite the fact that, at her request, I had made known to him her maiden name REDACTED. I offered on the part of the province to defray counseling costs. She expressed gratitude but disappointment that Fr. Miani had not admitted wrongdoing. She then stated that she wished to confer with her parish priest, and has not contacted me since that time. Fr. Miani is in and out of the hospital, it seems, because of his heart condition.

Dear REDACTED

Last month, I received a letter from Father REDACTED Salesians.
It included an update on the case of Father Titian Miani.

I am sorry I have not gotten this out to you before now. This is what Father REDACTED wrote:

Several months ago, after our last conversation, I contacted REDACTED REDACTED explaining that Fr. Titian Miani had not admitted any wrongdoing despite the fact that, at her request, I had made known to him her maiden name REDACTED. I offered on the part of the Province to defray counseling costs. She expressed gratitude but disappointment that Fr. Miani had not admitted wrongdoing. She then stated that she wished to confer with her parish priest, and has not contacted me since that time. Fr. Miani is in and out of the hospital, it seems, because of his heart condition.

I am wondering if REDACTED has, in fact, conferred with you and if she is receiving treatment. If you think I should take further action in this regard, I would be glad to do so. Father REDACTED is a most sensible and well-intentioned REDACTED but I have found that he does not take decisive action in some cases. He and I have a good relationship, and I can certainly ask him to do more in this case, dependent on REDACTED's needs.

At this point, I would think that she should accept his offer to defray her counseling costs if, in fact, she is receiving therapy.

I pray you will have a good summer.

Dear Father^{REDACTED}

As REDACTED Archdiocese of Los Angeles, I am so grateful for the many priests from institutes of consecrated life and societies of apostolic life serving the people of this local church. A large group of religious priests were present at our Presbyteral Assembly in October. Their participation enriched us and reminded us of how essential to the well-being of our people are the contributions of the many different orders present among us.

As you well know, we are still endeavoring to reach equitable settlements to the many lawsuits filed against the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and against religious orders. As you also know, as part of the settlement process in southern California, the judge has required that dioceses and religious orders/institutes prepare "proffers" regarding the issue of notice of any propensity of a priest towards inappropriate conduct with minors. The Archdiocese recently completed the process of having the proffers it prepared reviewed and verified by the judge.

Some of those proffers include priests from various institutes of consecrated life or societies of apostolic life, including yours. For other religious priests, especially those who served here in past decades, we have little or no file information and proffers were not prepared for these men. It is my understanding that you and your attorneys likewise are creating proffers as part of the mediation and settlement process.

Cardinal Mahony is now consulting with his advisors, especially our Presbyteral Council, on the wisdom of making these proffers available for review by our Catholic people. Currently, it is his intent to proceed with making this information available in some form, especially since some victims have indicated that the release of this kind of information can be helpful to their healing process. Release of such information also responds to the call from so many of our Catholic people for greater openness about how complaints of sexual misconduct have been handled. Thus, our sense is that there will be great value in taking the initiative now to release these documents ourselves, allowing us to do so in a constructive context and with appropriate explanation.

The Cardinal has asked that I write to each of the provincials/major superiors of communities from whom we have prepared proffers for one or more of your priests. Enclosed for your review is a copy of the proffer(s) related to priests of your community. As you can see, for the most part the proffer includes information on the priests' dates of birth and ordination, as well as their assignment histories within this Archdiocese. Occasionally, when our files have had the information, it may also include some assignments outside of our Archdiocese. When applicable, the proffers also include information on when notice of any kind of sexual misconduct by a priest was reported to Archdiocesan authorities. This, obviously, relates to the critical legal question of "notice."

As noted above, because of the limited nature of our files, we did not prepare a proffer for every priest from an order or society who may have been named in lawsuits alleging sexual misconduct with minors while serving in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. So if there is more than one priest from your community named in a lawsuit here, you may not find a proffer for each one.

We did not want to release the proffers of any priest of your community without first communicating our thinking to you, and allowing you to review the proffer(s) of any priest from your community. Certainly, if any of the information in our files is erroneous, we would very much appreciate receiving corrected information from you.

If you have any questions, please feel free to phone REDACTED
REDACTED You are also welcome to phone me on December 20, 21 or 22 at REDACTED I am not available from December 14-19 due to duties that take me outside the Archdiocese.

In this Advent season of hope, let us pray for the healing and renewal of all of our people!

May God bless you!

MEMORANDUM

July 27, 2009

TO: File
FROM: REDACTED
Clergy Misconduct Oversight Board

SUBJECT: Father James Titian Miani, S.D.B. (CMOB 192)

The Clergy Misconduct Oversight Board considered the allegations against Father James Titian Miani on June 24, 2009.

The complainant alleges that when he was attending a local Catholic high school he was sexually abused by Fr Miani. The abuse happened around 1964. Fr. Miani left the Archdiocese 40 years ago and there have been no other complaints of a similar nature made against him. The religious order will be notified. The Board concluded that no further action was required and that the case should be moved to the inactive file.
