MEMORANDUM

DATE: November 2, 1990

FROM: [REDACTED]

TO: REDACTED - For your Information

RE: REDACTED

Last June the [REDACTED] informed us Rev. REDACTED was being assigned to their new [REDACTED]. Believe letter went in to you marked "return if ok to implement."

At any rate, in filing in the C file the other day I found a file for REDACTED with some pretty strong stuff in it.

Just wanted to call this to your attention. Record shows he went from Associate at [REDACTED] to Residence there in May 1989 and then to the Priory as Sub Prior in June 1990.

OK. There were serious charges. But they were not pursued by Alice. The charges may well have been false.

MEMORANDUM

February 21, 1989

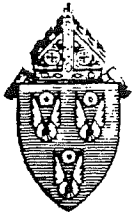

TO: Archbishop Mahony
FROM: Monsignor Thomas Curry
RE: REDACTED

Mr. REDACTED called me today to say that the D.A. has rejected the case against REDACTED and will not prosecute. It is a matter of one person's word against another's, and there is no possibility of proving the case.

Mr. REDACTED says he believes the priest, so for us there does not seem to be any further action. I will contact Father REDACTED REDACTED and see if he needs to take any further steps. - possibly some counselling.

Thanks - please keep me informed.

Dear Father REDACTED

Mr. REDACTED called me with the good news that the D.A. is dropping the case against REDACTED. I was delighted to hear it and just spoke to REDACTED. Please let me know if I can assist in any way.

Enclosed is the documentation for the bond posted for REDACTED. Since Father REDACTED was away, and since the Chancery was about to close on that day, I paid the bond personally and would appreciate it if I could be reimbursed. My understanding was that the money would be refunded, but Mr. REDACTED informs me that is not the case. Sorry to add this burden.

I do hope we will meet soon under better circumstances, and do stop by next time you are out here.

With thanks for all your help and support, I remain
